RPC BIRTHDAYS THIS WEEK Redmond Presbyterian Church would like to wish the following a happy birthday and a year filled with blessings: October 29th – Ann Luce and Katie Gomulkiewicz, October 30th – Ruth Jesson, October 31st – Barbara Taylor and Jean Huesmann and November 4th – Nicole Lesh.

Psssst ~ We have a new Kyocera copier in the office but it does not have a finisher like the old Xerox machine which means it does not staple nor fold. Therefore we need to resurrect the brigade of volunteers that would be willing to come in for an hour or less on Friday to fold all the bulletins, Happenings and other items as they arise in our schedule. Anyone available? (I have hot coffee or chocolate or cappuccinos.)

The flowers in the Sanctuary today have been provided by Elaine Price.

Books on the Dinner Table is a women's group that will let you bring your reading to the dinner table. Our first book discussion dinner was so good that we decided to have a part two and finish discussing Inspired: Slaying Giants, Walking on Water, and Loving the Bible Again by Rachel Held Evans (available in paperback, ebook, and audio). We will meet on Saturday, November 10th from 6-8 pm. New members are welcome. Please RSVP so we can plan for a place to have dinner - Juliann Phillips, juliannph@gmail.com or 206-419-1050.

Knit One - Pray Too is a group for anyone who likes to knit or crochet. We meet one Saturday, 10 - 11 am at church. Upcoming knitting times: November 10, and December 9. We have made prayer shawls for RCP members and friends and lots of hats for children and adults that are donated to various groups in the area. You can also just join us to work on your own projects and enjoy the fellowship of other fiber enthusiasts. Don't know how to knit? There are many in our group who are happy to get you started. If you have more questions or would like to be added to our email reminder list, please contact Juliann Phillips, juliannph@gmail.com
