Worshipping Together: This Fall at RPC

At RPC, our commitment is to grow together into the community that Christ calls us to be. Gathering together in Worship has always been an essential moment of growth and community for our church. To build on our strong community, Session has discerned that when we gather for communion on the first Sunday of every month, we will hold one 10:00 a.m. worship service where we can come to the Lord's Table together. This new schedule will begin in the Fall of 2019. After we return from our Summer schedule, we'll make this change on the first Sunday in October and each first Sunday moving forward.

This new rhythm will give us the opportunity to all be together in worship on a regular basis. We are looking forward to the ways we will grow as we get to see each other more often and connect on a regular basis. RPC is a caring and loving community and we want to be sure to not take that reality for granted. Coming together regularly and sharing our lives with one another will help us to grow into our identity as a church.

You'll receive lots of reminders in the weeks and months to come. Session is excited about this new opportunity and we want to invite you to begin marking your calendar now in anticipation.

Sincerely,

Pastor Austin and Session

Our next Books on the Dinner Table gathering will be Saturday, June 1 at 6:00 pm. We will be talking about Liturgy of the Ordinary: Sacred Practices in Everyday Life by Tish Harrison Warren.

"In the overlooked moments and routines of our day, we can become aware of God's presence in surprising ways. How do we embrace the sacred in the ordinary and the ordinary in the sacred? Framed around one ordinary day, this book explores daily life through the lens of liturgy, small practices, and habits that form us."

Books on the Dinner Table is open to all women

. We will gather at 6:00 pm at the home of Lynn Shomber in Woodinville. Please plan to bring a simple appetizer to share and join us for an evening of conversation and fellowship. For more information, questions, and RSVP, please contact Juliann Phillips, juliannph@gmail.com or 206-419-1050.
