Worship This Sunday

10 AM Service

Fellowship

Focus on Mission: Dave and Wendy Ashenbrenner – Sunday, July 7th following our 10 a.m. worship service. David and Wendy Ashenbrenner (yep...Austin's parents) serve and work as missionaries in Guatemala with their organization "Juntos" (Spanish for "Together"). Join us on Sunday, July 7th to hear about their work with refugees and community developers in Northern Guatemala. You will get a chance to learn a great deal about how God is at work in this part of the world and how we here in Redmond might be a part of this work.

Redmond Presbyterian will again be participating in Redmond Derby Days on Saturday, July 13th. We would love to have everyone come and join us. First of all, if you are interested in working on, being on or walking with the float, contact Betty Koenig, footcareCL@aol.com. Second, we will have an informational booth, so if you are interested in working the booth contact Sandee Palmquist, sandee.palmquist@comcast.net. Sign-up sheet is on the bulletin board @ the back of the Sanctuary.

Calling all musicians and/or vocalists ~

We will begin our Summer Worship schedule next Sunday, July 7th. During our summer months we would love to invite you to bring your talents to help lead us in worship. Each service will have a space for a piece of "special music" where RPC folks can share a favorite hymn or spiritual song for the week. Please contact the office@redmondpres.org with the title of your vocal or instrumental piece you would like to share with us. We hope to hear from you as you firm up your summer travel plans. (I now have July 7th, 14th, 28th and August 4th, 11th, 18th, 25th available at this point.)

Summer is a time for sunshine, respite, and fun! This summer, as we enjoy our days, we will be studying the many times Jesus says "stay awake" or "wake up" in scripture. What does it look like to be awake in the Spirit - when we play, work, or rest? How often do we consider what Jesus is doing in the moment? A "woke" faith means we are aware of Jesus Christ and acting in the Spirit no matter what we do. Where are the places in your life Jesus is calling you to wake up?

The flowers in the Sanctuary today have been offered by the Steeples family, Brad, Julia, Melody, Tanner and Gloria wishing everyone a happy and safe Fourth of July.

End Summer Hunger - We are cooperating with Hopelink again this year to help provide food for children who normally receive subsidized breakfast and lunch at school. Over 15,000 children in North and East King County receive free or reduced-cost meals each day. Hard to imagine, isn't it?

You can help by donating food or cash. Special grocery bags and cash donation envelopes are available at the doors in the sanctuary. Please fill up the bags and bring them back to church. Your cash or check donation will provide many times more impact than food - please make your check payable to 'Redmond Presbyterian Church' and write 'End Summer Hunger' on the memo line. Thank you for your concern for our neighbors!

RPC BIRTHDAYS THIS WEEK Redmond Presbyterian Church would like to wish the following a happy birthday and a year filled with many blessings: June 30th – Bruce Johnson, July 1st – Margaret Javier, July 5th – Ginny Fisher and Katie Walter and July 7th – Bill Regan.

Worshipping Together: This Fall at RPC

At RPC, our commitment is to grow together into the community that Christ calls us to be. Gathering together in Worship has always been an essential moment of growth and community for our church. To build on our strong community, Session has discerned that when we gather for communion on the first Sunday of every month, we will hold one 10:00 a.m. worship service where we can come to the Lord's Table together. This new schedule will begin in the Fall of 2019. After we return from our Summer schedule, we'll make this change on the first Sunday in October and each first Sunday moving forward.

Sincerely,

Pastor Austin and Session
