Fellowship via Zoom immediately following Worship

Summer Sermon Series: “All Things New” begins June 28th. We are in extraordinary times and wandering through new learning and growing in our daily walk with Jesus Christ. As we ponder our circumstances, our summer series encompasses stories throughout scripture where God calls His people to consider a new direction. Many who have gone before us in faith have experienced circumstances where life required an alternate route. We set our minds on a destination and bring our experiences, opinions, and preference to the journey and this summer we will consider how God may be speaking into our journey and encouraging us in new and exciting directions.

“Let’s Walk” – RPC Summer Walking Group

Thursdays at 10:00 a.m. (July 2nd – August 27th)

This Summer at RPC we are going to take advantage of the warm weather by meeting up once a week to go for a walk. This will give us much needed time to connect, to share stories, to pray, and to simply observe God at work in our community.

This walking group is for all ages and all abilities. We’ll get some light exercise and enjoy each other’s company. Come join us every week or just as you’re able. Meet at RPC on Thursdays at 10 a.m. (July 2 – August 27th)

RPC Summer Reads – Faith, Race, and Equality

This Summer at RPC we want to begin an important conversation about our faith and its intersection with issues of race and reconciliation. All are invited to join us in this work in July and August.

Pastor Austin and Juliann Phillips will be co-leading a series of book groups and discussions in July and August. We will be reading, “The Very Good Gospel” by Lisa Sharon Harper and “I’m Still Here” by Austin Channing Brown. Each of these titles will offer challenging and important voices that will invite us to engage topics like equity, justice, racism, and faith.

The Summer Reads group will meet in both large group and break-out group formats on a weekly basis. We’ll meet twice monthly in a large group to discuss the book and twice monthly in smaller groups to dig deeper into scripture.

Starting on Wednesday, July 1st (from 6:30 – 7:30 p.m.) we’ll begin discussing “The Very Good Gospel” by Lisa Sharon Harper. We encourage you to pick up your book now online or through the library as soon as possible. All are welcome to join us...please rsvp by emailing office@redmondpres.org to indicate your plan to join us. If you have questions, please contact Pastor Austin or Juliann Phillips.

Feeding Redmond School Kids: We are starting to assemble items for Food Drop #7 which will take place in July. Thank you to those who have supported us in this cause. Those boxes of food go to families who have been identified as "food insecure" therefore the boxes of groceries are much needed and even more appreciated. If you have contributed - great! If you want to support our cause, please make your check payable to and send to Redmond Presbyterian Church and on the memo line, write Food Box Donation. Thank you all for all you are doing to help our Redmond community.

AT-HOME VBS 2020: CAMP COMPASSION

Overlake Park Presbyterian Church and Redmond Presbyterian Church invite you to join us for a week of at-Home VBS the week of Monday, July 27 – Friday, July 31. You'll get all the supplies you'll need in your VBS Supply Box (to be picked up at church ahead of time – or shipped to you for a fee).

We'll start each session with "live" worship on YouTube (much like our Sunday worship now), followed by a Zoom meeting for kids to interact with each other and their leaders and hear the daily Bible lesson. You'll then have access to a YouTube video demonstrating the craft for the day – which you can do at your own pace. Don't miss out on this opportunity to cultivate compassion and stay connected with your church family.

RPC BIRTHDAYS THIS WEEK ~ Redmond Presbyterian Church would like to wish the following a happy birthday and a year filled with many blessings: June 21st – Cynthia Pearson, June 22nd – Tom Foti and June 28th – Dale Hauer.

Donate blood:

If you are healthy and you are able to donate blood, this is an important need in the midst of this crisis. You can follow the link here Bloodworks Northwest. This is just one way some of us can help if we are able.
