“Let’s Walk” – RPC Summer Walking Group

Thursdays at 10:00 a.m. (July 2nd – August 27th)

This Summer at RPC we are going to take advantage of the warm weather by meeting up once a week to go for a walk. This will give us much needed time to connect, to share stories, to pray, and to simply observe God at work in our community.

This walking group is for all ages and all abilities. We'll get some light exercise and enjoy each other's company. Come join us every week or just as you're able. Meet at RPC on Thursdays at 10 a.m. (July 2 – August 27th except on 8/20)

RPC Summer Reads – Faith, Race, and Equality

This Summer at RPC we are having a conversation about our faith and its intersection with issues of race and reconciliation.

Pastor Austin leading a series of book groups and discussions in July and August. We will be reading, “The Very Good Gospel” by Lisa Sharon Harper and “I’m Still Here” by Austin Channing Brown. Each of these titles will offer challenging and important voices that will invite us to engage topics like equity, justice, racism, and faith.

Our next gathering will be on Wednesday, August 26th (from 6:30 – 7:30 p.m.) and we will continue the discussion on “I’m Still Here” by Austin Channing Brown. Pick up your book now online or through the library and jump into the discussion. All are welcome to join us...please rsvp by emailing office@redmondpres.org to indicate your plan to join us. If you have questions, please contact Pastor Austin.

Thank you all for your support of our Food Box Program over the last 4 1/2 months.

Thank you all for your support of our Food Box Program during 'the summer of quarantine'. With your help we have been able to provide food for our neighbors in need 6 times! With each donation we have helped between 130 and 140 families! But our last donation fed 160 families! The need is growing.

We are not sure what nutrition plans will look like when the LWSD gets back to school, since they have now announced that they will be virtual for at least the fall. We want to be prepared to respond in any way we might be needed. The new link reflects our current finances. We spend the money you donate on our families, exclusively. Since we are an all-volunteer organization, we spend all of our donations feeding people.

We are hoping that you might consider donating once again and of course you can still send a check to payable to Redmond Presbyterian Church and on the memo line, write "Food Box donation".

Each time you donate, the money you give helps with food for the each month's donation day. Any funds leftover will provide us with money to plan further into the school year.

If you have friends and family who are interested in donating, please share our link with them as well. The August donation day took place last Thursday, Aug. 13. Together we can make sure that all children have the nutrition they need to be successful.

RPC BIRTHDAYS THIS WEEK ~ Redmond Presbyterian Church would like to wish the following a happy birthday and a year filled with many blessings: August 16th – Brad Steeples, August 19th – Donald Avery and August 22nd – Gary Grover.
